

PARENT WORKSHOP

The Alpharetta Police Department invites you to attend our upcoming Parent Workshop as we discuss important topics related to safety, situational awareness, and the development of positive habits.

Fulton County Schools has partnered with the Alpharetta Police Department to provide parent education and the opportunity for Q & A with your local officers. If you see that your school is not hosting the workshop, don't worry – all parents with children in Fulton County Schools in the City of Alpharetta are welcome.

We look forward to seeing you there!
